NOTES ON NSC BRIEFING, 1 MARCH 1956, BY [redacted]

25X1X7

Mr. Dulles opened his briefing to the NSC by reading [redacted]

25X1X7 [redacted]

The second point: He briefed to considerable length on the Algerian situation. (see notes) Added a few points on queries from the President on Morocco and Tunisia. Admiral Radford also joined in on the military side and supported the Director, emphasizing the ineptness of foreign military tactics in North Africa and voiced gloomy predictions as to the value of their maneuvers. The President also asked several questions on North Africa and seemed very much interested in the situation.

The third point: Mr. Dulles briefed on the composition of the new Moscow hierarchy in line with the notes.

NOTE: Viet Nam and Greece not used.
